- Items which reveal paid WeatherAction forecast detail,

- Items which are in a large or central part false or rude (by accident or design) in which case writers may get a direct response, or be ignored.

- Items involving swearing

- Items which are irrelevant and/or trollish

in which case they may be advised, or not, on where to go.

- Items from people who do not use real names and persistently do not provide an e-mail address may be ignored depending on the circumstances.

NOTE We normally REQUIRE proper contact information for anyone making or claiming to make Observational Reports specific or general. We have had a number of instances of questionable 'information' being offered from 'no contact' or people purporting to be subscribers who are not.

THE KITCHEN TEST. This web site is not a public place for unconstructive exchange and false accusations but more like a personal kitchen. So if you sent in something that was ignored (note we publish almost everything) ask yourself if someone walked into your house and kitchen and said what you said or implied would you let them stay or send them out.

When commenting please say whether you are a subscriber or not and give your approx address / location (or precise location and Obs time if giving a weather report!).

When commenting on a WeatherAction (or any) forecast refer to actual forecast words as far as possible because some summaries / notes circulated, 'reports' of forecasts have been or can be misleading. Also include actual obs / web links where possible. Please give working links when you refer to other articles/sites.
