Prof Phil Jones has 'stood aside' (1st Dec) as Director of the Climatic Research Unit ('CRU') of the University of East Anglia while an 'independent' review of ClimateGate is carried out.

Piers Corbyn astrophysicist of WeatherAction says:

“This is a token intended to enable a cover-up of the shameful suppression of differing science and the hiding of data on world cooling by those in charge of this data.

● The CRU should be closed down and the whole matter of world data be run by a new independent organisation which has explicit representatives from BOTH sides of the debate running it, and everything it does be totally public and transparent.

● The Inquiry must include the role of the University Of East Anglia which either colluded with or failed to notice and act against the perpetrators of this monstrous scandal. The University must not be allowed to Inquire into itself. That is a recipe for cover-up.

The attempt by Prof Jones to explain away his “trick” of “hiding the decline” is pathetic. Instead of concentrating on one word trick which could mean ‘clever data transformation’ or ‘lie’ we should look at two - HIDING and DECLINE. (see <http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/england/norfolk/8389727.stm>)

At WeatherAction we will cease using CRU data for climate studies. It is dodgy. Instead we will use satellite data and hope a new honest world data operation can link that into honest past data. The probable result for our world climate forecast will be that we are even more confident of our forecasted continuing general decline in world temperatures – staying colder than now for at least 100 yrs and expect an even colder world than we first suggested. World cooling has set in.... <http://climaterealist.com/index.php?id=3307&linkbox=true>

Lord Stern - an economist, who, like the rest of the Global Warmers who refused the offer to attend our WeatherAction conference on Oct 28th in Imperial College London to justify their position to scientists, has a cheek to denounce those like me who stand for evidence-based science as ‘muddled and confused’. I have been called many things but this isn’t one of them! Lord Stern - where NOW is THE EVIDENCE for your Global Warming story – your Weapon of Mass Taxation? Some of the data evidence against your belief was deleted by the CRU guardians of world data!

BBC Roger Harrabin suggested it’s too late to stop a Deal at Copenhagen because ‘the train’s already left the station’

Let’s DE-RAIL THE TRAIN!

Two of the 58,000 made homeless in Sri Lanka by floods from storms specifically forecast by Weather Action for Sri Lanka 17-19th Nov.

If a deal is signed in Copenhagen the development of Sri-Lanka and many countries will be held back and these people will be locked in poverty for life.

European Governments say they will give handouts to the developing world for ‘climate mitigation, technology transfer and adaptation’. What is this but paying for high tech products from the west. It is just fiscal stimulus by another name. Let’s be clear the people above don’t want solar panels, wind farm and carbon trading. They need clean water, cheap electricity and action against disease. Instead of the green con why not help these countries:

- 1) Fight malaria & other diseases.
- 2) Get low cost (eg coal) electricity and long-range forecasts of extreme weather events ?

Weather Forecast for Copenhagen!

30th November 2009 WeatherAction News No 91 = ClimateGate1 = http://www.weatheraction.com/docs/WANews09No91.pdf

WeatherAction releases free long range forecast for Copenhagen - Climate summit to be hit by blustery deluges, probably turning to snow or blizzards & icy blasts in the region at times - espec heavy when President Obama visits.

Mind the Gap!

Notice the gap between the CRU data (upper zigzag) and satellite data (lower zigzag) has increased in recent years. Which one do you think is getting warmer? Look below. Answers by email to CRUinquiry@uea.ac.uk

World Temperatures keep falling while CO2 is rising!

The Global Warming Climate hype bandwagon is doomed

ClimateGate is the beginning of the end of the 'theory' of man-made CO2 driven Global Warming. The bandwagon has hit an iceberg of failure and revelations of falsification and cover-up. Its credibility now lies blown to smithereens but the perpetrators of this the greatest scandal of our times will not go quietly. All who care for evidence-based science and policies and accountability of the political process must stand up now.

Time to Choose

The world public, delegates and onlookers to the Copenhagen Climate summit must choose if they want to continue with politically driven failed science which has become a grave and dangerous new religion and burden to world development; or support evidence-based science and public policy, and Climate Realism. That opens the way to apply solar-based science of long range Weather Extreme Forecasting And Defence (WEXFAD) to defend the world from predictable extreme weather events.

It's time for honest green campaigners to get off the Titanic of Climate Change hype while they can, and stand tall themselves to preserve bio-diversity, rain-forests & defend nature's hosts of treasures for their own sake. If honest greens don't jump ship now they and what they thought they stood for will get dragged down by the gathering world wave of revulsion against everything seen as 'green', self-serving 'science', state handouts to environmental scams and all things dear to the chattering classes.

Support evidence-based Science and Public Policy! –
No to any DEAL in Copenhagen!
